URBNarc competed against a number of architects in the region to receive this recognition. The awards were presented at a high-profile gala and presentation dinner at the Shangri-La Hotel in Kuala Lumpur on May 9th, 2014

Stuart Shield, president of the International Property Awards, says, “It never ceases to amaze me how competing companies from the Asia Pacific region continue to raise the bar even higher every year. The commitment to excellence they demonstrate in every aspect of their profession represents the very essence of these awards.”

The Asia Pacific Property Awards are part of the long established International Property Awards. The award winners' logo is recognised as a symbol of excellence throughout the global industry. Attaining one of these coveted awards is indisputable evidence that URBNarc is capable of outperforming some exceedingly strong contenders within the highly competitive Asia Pacific property arena.

Gaurang Khemka, Founder and Design Director for URBNarc who has put his heart and soul into this project is delighted to receive this recognition and hopes to win more such awards at the international level.

Later this year, URBNarc's winning project will compete against other winning companies from Europe, Africa, Canada, the USA, Central and South America, the Caribbean and Arabia to find the ultimate World's Best in each category.

The judging panel consists of approximately 70 professionals including Lord Caithness, Lord Best, Lord Courtown, Fiona Nixon, chairman of the Australian Institute of Architects; Patrick Grove, co-founder of IPGA Ltd; and Peter Bolton King, residential professional group director at RICS.
